The Department of Language & Literacy Education has opportunities for a Graduate Teaching Assistant (GTA I or II) position in 2021W1.

The incumbents will work with the course coordinator and section instructors to support the multi-section course LLED 350: Classroom Discourses: Elementary. This course is part of the Teacher Education (BEd) program.

Course: LLED 350: Classroom Discourses: Elementary
Meeting Dates: Sep 7, 2021-Dec 15, 2021
Hours: 192 hours total per position
Salary: $33.14-$34.44/hour per the CUPE 2278 salary scale
No. of positions: One

Duties
- Attends online meetings with the Course Coordinator and the Instructors
- Assists Instructors with various online teaching responsibilities
- Marks allocated student assignments and keeps appropriate records
- Assists course instructors with assigned teaching responsibilities
- Communicates with course instructors as needed
- Performs other such associated duties, as may be assigned.

Qualifications
At minimum, candidates must have advanced training and/or be enrolled in a relevant master’s degree (language education, applied linguistics, or a related field). Applicants who have completed their master’s degree are preferred. Relevant teaching experience in a school setting, excellent communication skills and an ability to work collaboratively is also required. Applicants must demonstrate a thorough knowledge of and practice in teaching English language learners across the curriculum. An understanding of new curricular approaches to teaching and learning is preferred but not essential.

Eligibility
To be eligible for a Teaching Assistant position, applicants must be registered as a student at UBC.

Application Instructions
Updated CV (required) and cover letter (optional) can be submitted as a PDF to lled-posting.educ@ubc.ca. Please indicate in the subject line that you are applying for the LLED 350 GTA position.

Application deadline: Noon, Wednesday, June 30, 2021